Beautiful Girl's Strange Suicide.

Nisgara Falls, June 14-Miss Gertrude Roth of Atlentown, Pa., a girl whose beauty attracted considerable attention here, threw here f into the whiripool rapids at 9 a. m. today, after remarking that it was wonderful more people did not commit suicide at the Fails, because the rapids were so fascinating.

The suicide arrived in Niagara Falls last night on the 19:50 o'clock Lehigh Valley train and put up at the Wayne Hotel, in Second street.

There she registered as Miss Mabel Williams of Philadelphia.

She was up before 7 o'clock this morning but did not breakfast at the hotel. She paid her lodging and engaged Elijah Shain Holiz, a carriage driver, to carry her to points of interest. She stopped at the Table Rock House on the Canadian side, registered and had a light breakfast. The next stop was at the Hotel Lafayette, where she bought a piece of wedgewood crockery. She addressed the parcel to Mrs.

Charles N. Wagner, Allentown, Pa. The roung woman was next driven to the Whiripool Rapids eleva-pr, which she descended about $10 o'clock. While standing on the phil-form over the water she took a chared silver bracelet from her wrist and put it in her parcel. Then she remarked to Arthur Buckley, the
